

MAKE IT COUNT – VIDEO HANDOUT

FEBRUARY – MARCH 2014

STAMPIN’ UP! DEVELOPMENT CHALLENGE

FROM MEG LOVEN, STAMPIN’ UP! DEMONSTRATOR

Watch the online “Make It Count” video from Meg.

The video is approx. 8 minutes and can be found at:

The “Make It Count” program is designed to help Stampin’ Up! demonstrators make the most of their investment in time, resources and energy. Basically, I want to help you “Make It Count!”

From the video, you know that “Make It Count” means many different things to different people, just as there can be all different types of demonstrators.

Wouldn’t you like to figure out how to make being a demonstrator count for you?

Take a few minutes to consider why you first signed up with Stampin’ Up!, then write a sentence or two.

Okay, now consider your demonstratorship today—do you still have the same ideas on what you’d like to accomplish? Maybe, or maybe not. How do you hope to see Stampin’ Up! make a difference either in your life, or the lives of people around you? (i.e. income, friendships, community outreach and service, personal development)

Next step—schedule your Make It Count Meet-Up, either with Meg or with a closer upline (Mary Ellen Stites or Julie Klock). Bring this sheet with you to the Meet-Up, or have it handy if you complete your Meet-Up by phone.

Congrats on taking the first step! Completing this sheet earns you a Make It Count Envelope—be sure to email a copy to Meg to earn your envelope!
